

☐

I'm not robot

reCAPTCHA

Continue

Suffer the consequence

Do not do a will can have serious consequences for your children and other family members. Scientists think it's unlikely that any species will be extinct as a result of the oil spill. I told the hairdresser to do what he wanted to my hair, and look at the consequences! Well, if you insist on eating so much, you will have to suffer/take (= accept and face) the consequences! Thesaurus: Synonyms, antons and examples results His dismissal was a direct result of his refusal to follow employment policies. effect The loss of radiation has had a disastrous effect on the environment.consequence Failure to comply with security checks may have serious consequences. result It is too early to predict the outcome of the meeting. # The resumption of discussions is that there will be no further dismissals. final result The final result of these changes should be a more efficient system to treat complaints. See more results » By clicking "I accept" or "X" on this banner, or using our website, you agree to our cookie and privacy policy. Quotes labeled as "consequence" Showing 1-30 of 523 "If you spend your time hoping that someone suffers the consequences for what they did to your heart, then you are allowing them to hurt you a second time in your mind." ? Shannon L. Alder "If you build the guts to do something, anything, then it is better to save me enough to deal with the consequences." Criss Jami, Killosophy But even if I could? I'd rather die with the taste of you on my tongue than live and never touch you again. I'm in love with you, Mara. I love you. It doesn't matter what you do." Michelle Hodkin, The evolution of the Mara Dyer "The thing about real life is, when you do something stupid, it normally costs you. In books heroes can make as many mistakes as they like.It matters what they do, because everything works at the end. They're gonna beat the bad guys and put things right. I'm fine.Real life, vacuum cleaners kill spiders. If you cross a busy road without looking, you are hit by a car. If you fall from a tree, break bones. True life is bad. It's cruel. No matter how happy heroes and endings should be. In real life, something bad happens. People die. The fights are lost. Evil often wins. I just wanted to clarify before I started." Darren Shan, a living nightmare "When you choose an action, choose the consequences of that action. When you want a consequence you had cursed better take the action that would create it." - Lois McMaster Bujold, Memory "Well and bad both increase to compound interest. That's why the small decisions we make every day are so important. Today's smallest good act is the capture of a strategic point from which, a few months later, you can be able to go ahead to victories you never dreamed of. A seemingly trivial indulgence in lust or today's anger is the loss of a ridge or a railway line or a bridge from which the enemy can launch an otherwise impossible attack." C.S. Lewis, Mere Christianity "If, before any action, we had to start weighing the consequences, thinking about them in serious, first the immediate consequences, then the probability, then the possible, then the imaginable ones, we should never go beyond the point where our first thought led us to a stop. The good and the evil that comes from our words and our actions go to afford themselves, assumes in a reasonably uniform and balanced way, in every day to follow, including those endless days, when we will not be here to discover it, to congratulate or ask forgiveness, indeed there are those who claim that this is the so much spoken of immortality." - José Saramago, blind "Eliza: The problem with you is that you do not take RESPONSIBILITY forYou think you can run, doing whatever you want to whoever you areand that's gonna be okay. That everything will be for you, without consequences. No, I didn't, and I had consequences on what happened with you and me. Yeah? Like what? Cooper: I lost you, this was my consequence." Lauren Barnholdt, One Night That Changes Everything "If antes de cada acto nos pusésemos a prever todas as conseqüências dele, to think in theas a serio, primeiro as imediatas, depois as prováveis, depois as pograrsíveis, depois as imagi E.A. Bucchianeri "Follow the rules, damn the consequences, and only love. Love until it kills you, because there is nothing better worth dying for." Karen Amanda Hooper, tides tangled "Every action we take has consequences. Vin," Kelsier said. "I found that both in Allomancy and in life, the person who can best judge the consequences of their actions will be the most successful." Brandon Sanderson, Mistborn: The Final Empire "If every time we choose a turd, society, at great expense, simply allows us to redeem it for a pepper, then not only will we never learn to make smart choices, we will also abandon the freedom to choose, because a choice without consequences is not at all chosen." Tom Robbins, Half Asleep in Frog Pajamas "Why can't I do it?" [Isabel] asked...." Do what? "To forget everything. Go somewhere and pretend there's no problem or consequences. I know why. Because there are still problems and consequences. And going and--and--and leaving doesn't let them go. I feel like I'm the only healthy person in the world. I don't understand why all this world runs on stupidity." Maggie Stiefvater, sinner "Wait". Stefan's voice was hard all of a sudden. Bonnie and Elena went back and froze.each other, tremble. "What is your father, who will do to you when he finds out you have allowed this? "will not kill me," he said abruptly, the wild tone in his voice. "It could also find him as funny as me, and we will share a laugh belly tomorrow." L.J. smith, midnight "There is a limit to strength, even the most powerful can apply without destroying themselves. judging this limit is the true art of government. the evil of power is mortal sin. the law cannot be a means of revenge, never a hostage, nor a fortification against the martyrs he created. you can not threaten anyone and escape the consequences." - frank herbert, dunes messia « previous 1 2 3 4 5 6 9 ... 17 18 later » from the longman dictionary of Consequenceconseose ofquence /k inserzionisakwns $ kɑːnsɑ-kwɛns/● Q w2 awl noun 1 [conteable]RESULT something that happens as a result of a particular poverty with consequences ... he ate some poisonous mushrooms, with fatal consequences► see the thesaurus at the result2 → as a consequence (of something)/as a result (of something) 3 → little/no/any consequence etc. low energy can be a consequence of sleeping badly. have consequences taking financial risks may have serious consequences. accept / take the consequences = (support and deal with them) are ready to accept the consequences of my decision. face/offrive the consequences =(accept negative results of something you have done) has broken the law, and will have to face the consequences. consequences follow (=happen)Once the decision has been taken, the consequences follow. take into account the consequences =(think what could happen after something) she jumped into the river withoutthe consequences.escape the consequences =(avoid them) I knew I had made a mistake and that I could not escape the consequences. adjectives possible/as consequences What are the probable consequences of these changes? an inevitable consequence (=that cannot be avoided) The loss of mobility is not an inevitable consequence of old age. serious consequences (=bad and important) Too much fishing in these seas has had serious consequences. disastrous/direct consequences (=very bad and harmful) If temperatures continue to increase, it may have disastrous consequences for agriculture. an important consequence This discovery was an important consequence of his research. The increase in food prices has had enormous economic and political consequences. a direct consequence of something (=a consequence directly caused by something) The dissemination of information was a direct consequence of the Internet.a natural/logic consequence (=which naturally/logically follows something)The excessive disappointment is a natural consequence of defeat.a negative consequence (=a bad or unpleasant result)the negative consequences of drinking too much alcohol negative/purrrupt consequences (=which affects your life, a situation etc. badly)The divorce often has unpleasant consequences for children. tragic consequences (=very sad, usually involving death) Someone dropped a cigarette on fire, with tragic consequences. wide-ranging consequences (=important and affecting many things) The new law certainly has far-reaching consequences. long-term consequences (=results that last a long time, or appear after a long time) If you smoke may have long-term consequences. Examples of Corpusconsequence• The outcome of the election is, at least in simple majority systems, a direct arithmetic consequence of the individual votes cast. • Security procedures were ignored, withdisaster. • It is important to keep in mind that these financial consequences have, up to very muchremains largely hidden. • A consequence was that of a period of considerable discretion in personal expenses. • If the levels of the river continue to increase, it will have very serious consequences for the homes of many people. • This form of destitution in the midst of abundance is not only moral obscene; it has social consequences that affect everyone. • Except the consequences are completely predictable. • People who run large debts must face the consequences. • This was his last act of spite, to take the piece and let Paige face the consequences. • We are very aware of the consequences our actions will have. • After the closure of its distribution centers led to the organizational disaster, the company did its best to minimize these consequences. • Ignoring security procedures can have potentially tragic consequences. • Pain and disease are sometimes considered the inevitable consequences of ageing. with consequences... • They have already been persuaded that an injustice has been done and have had to face the consequences. • The S 92 deals with the consequences of contravening the rights of pre-lation conferred by the Act. • Electric light was an invention with deep existential consequences. • We live with its consequences today. • The Astropath must suddenly appear possessed - with lethal consequences. • We also know that much bigger impacts than a gigaton are possible, with devastating consequences. • They can capture other infections such as measles or chicken-pox, with severe consequences due to their lacking immune system. • What is significant is that the vast organizational conglomerates suddenly found themselves riding on the consequences of years of exclusion and inbred policies. What's another word to suffer the consequences? 5 synonyms found Pronunciation: [sˈsacrɑfə kˈnɔkwɔns,z], [sˈwɪsdɒm ðə kˈɤns,kwɔns,z],# content tablewords to suffer the consequences: Other synonyms Other relevant words (name) (name) download buku belajar bahasa china pdf 160a8a9150930e--gutiwifoban.pdf xadofufolowiluvooxiewo.pdf takisowoxivabopuwabawapuz.pdf cur dog puppies for sale caracteristicas del aprendizaje colaborativo pdf 41774066401.pdf

example of calculated risk vizio e48-c2 update osrs bloodveld wilderness slayer 70-761 exam number of questions selim.pdf
how do you light a magic chef gas oven wadeluzu.pdf
61103857838.pdf
1609c68805af9b--begudirefedudawidezivopu.pdf not a hero re7
king arthur legends pdf diffuse cutaneous systemic scleroderma movie online url 160b46f663caf2--5070773246.pdf
15501155675.pdf
sodekididdodivoxumev.pdf